

Program ISCHP2007

Wednesday July 18th 2007 (Afternoon)

Time	Room A	Room B	Room C	Little Theatre
1.30	Welcome: (Little Theatre) Chair: Irina Todorova, Miranda Waggoner, Liz Mongillo Welcome address by Allen J. Brown , Associate Professor of Psychology and Assistant Dean of Social Sciences, Endicott College
2.00	Keynote 1: Lesley Doyal: Exploring life with HIV/AIDS: a case study of African women and men in London (Little Theatre) Chair: Antonia Lyons, Massey University, New Zealand
3.00	Coffee and tea
	Workshop 1: Helena Angell: Media literacy, education and at-risk youth	Session 1: Providing Health Information	Session 2: Exploring Health and Illness Through Voice and Image	Symposium 1: Convenor Chantal Piot-Ziegler: What is the value of life? Existential concerns of potential donating families, donors, and of persons waiting for transplantation
3.15		1 Anna van Wersch: Avoiding Surgical Removal of Gallbladder Stones: A Study of Information and Social Support of Self Treatment Methods Through the Internet	1 Claire Smith: Illness Narratives and Multiple Literacies: Singing, Painting, and Writing Stories of Identity (Re)Construction After Traumatic Brain Injury	1 Magi Sque , Tracy Long, Sheila Payne: Why relatives do not donate organs for transplant operations: Is 'sacrifice' a more appropriate family care model than the 'gift of life'?
3.45		2 Gina A. Turner , Michael F. Schober: Who Gets Responded to in Online Cancer Support Groups?	2 Tamar Bar-On: Dialoguing with art materials as a mirror of problem finding and solving strategies	2 Gundula Huebner , Bernd Six: Promoting the organ donor card – An experimental study
4.15		3 Gaby Jacobs , Martijn Rozing, Gerard Molleman, Frieda van de Jagt: 'Re-educating' Health Promotion Professionals for Collaborative Action with Communities: An Action Learning Program in the Netherlands	3 Linda Liebenberg: Methodological lessons from the field: Advantages in using visual research methods when crossing boundaries	3 Chantal Piot-Ziegler , Nadja Ruffiner-Boner, Fabienne Fasseur, Thérèse Cuttelod, Jennifer Szymanski, Floriane Fonzallaz, Marie Santiago, John-David Aubert, Manuel Pascual: Existential and psychological concerns during the pretransplantation period – A qualitative study
4.45		4 Harriet Gross , Claire Gascoigne, Kevin Morgan: Teaching Your Grandmother: Giving Advice on Behaviour Change for Cold Weather	4 Alan Radley: Time, space and storytelling in the outpatient consultation	Discussant: Kerry Chamberlain
5.15		5 Rakesh Biswas , Shashikiran Umakanth, Binod Dhakal: Presenter: Sumit Dahiya Answering Multidimensional Information Needs in the Individual Patient and Health Professional Utilizing a User Driven Learning Solution	5 Nina P. Slota , Karen Peffley: Triangulating qualitative data: The co-construction of visual time-lines with individuals with traumatic brain injuries
5-45-6.45	Film: Holly Haywood, Kari Wagner, "I Make Books" (Little Theatre) Chair: Kerryellen Vroman, University of New Hampshire, US
7.30	Welcome Dinner

Thursday July 19th 2007 (Morning)

Time	Room A	Room B	Room C	Little Theatre
	Invited Roundtable 1:	Session 3: Seeking to Understand Pain	Session 4: Health Care Practice	Symposium 2: Convenor: Carla Willig: Madness and meaning: An exploration of 'risky practices'
8.30	Emily Abbey: The Dialogical Self and health	1 Robert Kugelmann: Witnessing Pain	1 Dana Kovarsky, Irene Walsh : Awkward moments in clinical discourse	1 Carla Willig: A phenomenological investigation of the experience of taking part in extreme sport
9.00		2 Kerryellen Vroman , Rebecca Warner: Understanding the experience of back pain through personal projects analysis	2 Barbara F. Sharf , Patricia Geist-Martin: Communicating healing holistically	2 Cristina Boserman: Diaries from Cannabis Users: An Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis
9.30	Invited Roundtable 2: Ayesha Chatterjee: Global adaptation/translation programs: Our Bodies, Ourselves	3 James R. Brennan : Chronic pain as critique of western/biomedicine	3 Sheila McNamee ; Celiane Camargo-Borges, Silvana Mishima: Engaging health professionals and users, transforming possibilities for Brazilian national healthcare: A dialogical approach	3 Katharine Lee Harrison Weille: Consensual sadomasochistic and dominant-submissive sexual games: A psychodynamic exploration using interpretative phenomenological analysis
10.00		4 Nance Cunningham : Structures of power and colonoscopy pain	4 Wendy Stainton Rogers: Nice work, but can you do it? Critical health psychology and evidence-based practice.
10.30	Coffee and tea
	Roundtable 3:	Session 5: Health and Intergenerational Relations	Session 6: Deconstructing Depression	Symposium 3: Convenor: Carla Rice: "In fitness and in health": Critical perspectives on obesity and healthy aging discourses
10.45	Kerry Chamberlain, Darrin Hodgetts: Questioning media research in critical health psychology	1 Susan E. Bell: Narratives and/in an embodied health movement: Power, knowledge, and DES	1 Tamara Beauboeuf-Lafontant: Listening for and past the lies that make us sick: Using the voice-centered method to understand black women's depressive experiences	1 Deborah McPhail: "This is the face of obesity": Race, class, gender and the psychological discourse of obesity in 1950s Canada
11.15		2 Sheryl Mendlinger, Julie Cwikel : The mother-daughter relationship as a buffer for mental health distress in times of transition: Immigration and childbirth	2 Michelle N. Lafrance: "It's just like Diabetes": A discursive analysis of medicalized constructions of depression	2 Claire Carter: 'Healthy aging' vs. 'anti-aging': Exploring North American representations and discourses of aging
11.45-12.15		3 Mary Breheny , Christine Stephens: "Breaking the Cycle": Constructing intergenerational explanations for disadvantage	3 Brigid Philip: The politics of self-help discourses on mental wellbeing"	3 Carla Rice: How big girls become fat girls: The production of problem eating and physical inactivity
12.15	Lunch

Thursday July 19th 2007 (Afternoon)

Time	Room A	Room B	Room C	Little Theatre
1.30	Keynote 2: Elliot Mishler: War, violence and torture: Topics for a Critical Health Psychology (Little Theatre) Chair: Barbara Bokhour, Boston University, US
2.30	Coffee and tea
	Workshop 2:	Session 7: Constructions of Birth and Fertility Decisions	Session 8: Language, Meanings and Embodiment	Session 9: Health Services and Disparities in Health Resources
2.45	Julie Cwikel: Using social epidemiology as a research tool for research, program planning and community interventions. Example: Safe motherhood in the developing world – Incorporating lessons from the field	1 Miranda R. Waggoner: Breastfeeding as a national health agenda: Implications for conceptions of health and motherhood	1 Antonia Lyons: Theorising Embodiment: Psychophysiology and Self-Construction processes	1 Christine Stephens: Social capital in its place: Using social theory to understand inequalities in health
3.15		2 Bregje de Kok: ‘I really tried’: Malawians’ accounts of their (in)action in response to fertility problems	2 Craig D. Murray, Presented by David Wilde : Being like everybody else: The personal meanings of prosthesis use	2 Elvira Cicognani , Tiziana Mancini, Maria Augusta Nicoli: The allocation of scarce medical resources: Lay people perspectives
3.45		3 Shona Crabb , Lucinda Clifford: Constructions of risk in the Australian RU486 debate	3 Tria Moore: Negotiating genetic technology	3 Ashraf Kagee , Marie Van Der Merwe: Treatment adherence among Black South African patients attending primary health care clinics: The utility of the theory of planned behaviour
4.15		4 Irina L.G. Todorova & Yulia Panayotova: Technologies of hope: Women’s voices on assisted reproductive technologies in Bulgaria	4 Mary Breheny and Christine Stephens: A life of ease and immorality: Health Professionals construct the welfare mother	4 Rachel Zack , Esteban V. Cardemil, Rachel Joffe Falmagne: Help-seeking patterns and perceptions among Latino men and women in Massachusetts
4.45		5 Iain Williamson , Steven Lyttle, Dawn Leeming, Sally Johnson: First-time mothers’ accounts of early breastfeeding difficulties: An interpretative phenomenological analysis	5. Kerry Chamberlain: “It’s like buying a tin of beans”: Over-the-counter pain relief medications in everyday life

5.15 -6.30 Poster Session and Reception (Library Foyer)

	A. Experiences and Constructions of Health and Illness: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Nina Slota, Beata Pezacka, Danese Forbes, Dina Seiden: The power of psychological literature to influence social constructions of patient populations: The case of inflammatory bowel disease, from 1872 to present 2. Steven Lyttle, Iain Williamson, Sally Johnson, Dawn Leeming: Using audio-diaries to capture lived experience in health psychology: Technological, methodological and epistemological issues 3. Fiona Clements, Fiona Tasker: The experience of cancer for Roman Catholic women over the age of 50 in England 4. Miraj U. Desai: Issues of congruence: Exploring the lived experiences of primary care patients screened for depression 5. B. Quintard, A. Coelier, E. Leconte, Y. Guiguen, A Taïeb: Quality of life and psoriasis: Thematic analysis of 50 exploratory interviews and construction of a French questionnaire. 6. Fabienne Fasseur: Creating a methodological qualitative research process: Reflexivity in practice 7. Laura S. Lorenz: Making visible the invisible: Using photovoice to elicit the perspective of brain injury survivors 	B. Relationships, Society and Health <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Luz Esther Rivera: Elder on long term care perception of the concepts of dignity, autonomy and independence from a humans right perspective 2. Bar-On Sari, Amit Rony: Improvement in functioning, cognitive capabilities and interaction at old age with animal assisted therapy 3. Raju Lakshmana: Overseas trained psychiatrists from developing countries in Victoria (Australia): Challenges in acculturation 4. Elvira Cicognani, Cinzia Albanesi, Bruna Zani: The impact of residential context on adolescents' subjective well being 5. Barbara Schneider: Searching for sanctuary: What home means to me 6. Ferda Aysan: Honor killings in the Eastern part of Turkey: A social problem that needs to be solved 7. Khapta Akhmedova: Mental health in war and terrorism environment
--	--	--

7.30 Dinner on campus or on your own

Friday July 20th 2007 (Morning)

Time	Room A	Room B	Room C	Little Theatre
	Invited Roundtable 4:	Session 10: Voices of Home and Homelessness	Session 11: Community health	Symposium 4: Convenor: David Harper Addressing the social context of psychological services: Re-thinking key concepts
8.30	M. Brinton Lykes: Feminist-infused participatory and action research in contexts of structural inequality and social suffering: Epistemological and methodological considerations in community-based collaborations	1 Darrin Hodgetts , Kerry Chamberlain, Alan Radley, Linda Nikora, Ottillie Stoltie, Eci Nabalarua, Shiloh Groot: Homelessness, health and reintegration	1 Celeste Atallah-Gutierrez, Devin Atallah-Gutierrez, Andrew Bodman, Sarah Dolan, Liz Mongillo , Nicole Santoro, Ester Shapiro: Bringing critical health psychology to urban university health services: Identifying and mobilizing resources for wellness and educational success	1 Bipasha Ahmed , Anamika Majumdar, Paula Reavey: Re-thinking 'culture': Implications for developing 'culturally sensitive' theories, practices and services
9.00		2 Uwe Flick , Gundula Röhnsch: Health and homelessness – Chronically ill adolescents in a German city	2 Erin E. Seaton: "But she always stayed strong": Safeguarding the psychological health of rural girls	2 David Harper & Kian Vakilli : From stigma to discrimination
9.30		3 Barbara Schneider: Housing for people with psychiatric disabilities: The discursive construction of deservingness	3 Sidney Liang , Munty Pot , Robin Toof , Andrea Laskey: Cambodian community health 2010: Community approaches to eliminating health disparities	3 Helen Murphy: Globalisation and psychological suffering in context: The Northern Ireland conflict and the notion of trauma
10.00		4 Film Barbara Schneider: Hearing [our] voices: A participatory study on Schizophrenia and homelessness	4 Patrice Muhirwa: The trauma inside the schools in Rwanda	Discussant: Wendy Stainton-Rogers
10.30	Coffee and tea
	Roundtable 5:	Session 12: Making Sense of Breast Cancer	Session 13: Resistive Discourses on Illness and Families	Symposium 5: Convenor: Susan Dion: Investigating and learning from resistance strategies of aboriginal adolescent girls: Reporting on the talking back project
10.45	Tricia Wolanin, Gillian Scott: Engaging and empowering homeless clients: Connecting homeless clients with preventive health and mental health services	1 Rebecca Jacoby , Avital Gershfeld-Litvin: Immediate breast reconstruction: Does it restore what was lost? A qualitative study on women's decision to undergo immediate breast reconstruction following mastectomy	1 Ellen S. Cohn: A narrative of resistance: Asserting control to preserve self and uncertainty when parenting children with asthma	1 Kirsten C. Madsen , Susan D. Dion, Debra J. Pepler, Debra Sault, Amanda Shebobman, & Destany Johns: The talking back project: Research, theory, and programme development
11.15		2 Leeat Granek , Karen Fergus, Barbara Fitzgerald, Mark Clemons, Andrea Eisen, Lynn Zalany, Fauzia Baig: "I'll stand by you": A qualitative investigation into the relationship process underlying the symptom appraisal of breast cancer	2 Deborah K. van den Hoonard: "I was there when she passed away": Older widowers' accounts of their wives' illnesses and deaths	2 Susan D. Dion , Kirsten Madsen, Debra Pepler: The talking back project and what the girls are teaching us
11.45-12.15		3 Lisa R. Rubin , Mary Carol Mazza, Andrea L. Pusic, Taja Ferguson, Gina Turner, Raquel Sanchez: To have or not to have breast reconstruction: An exploration of the decision making process among Black and Latina breast cancer survivors	3 Thérèse Cuttelod: And life goes on: How women perceive the impact of child sexual abuse as an adult	3 Susan D. Dion , Kirsten Madsen, Debra Pepler: Knowing/not knowing worthiness: Aboriginal adolescent girls complicate our understanding of the search for self-worth
12.15	Lunch

Friday July 20th 2007 (Afternoon)

Time	Room A	Room B	Room C	Little Theatre
1.30	Keynote 3: Catherine Riessman: Narrative analysis and Bob Dylan: What's the connection? (Little Theatre) Chair: Kerry Chamberlain, Massey University, New Zealand
2.30	Coffee and tea
	Workshop 3:	Session 14: Issues in CHP Research	Session 15: Risk, Power and Identity	Symposium 6: Convenor: Jane Ussher: Negotiating gendered subjectivity in relational contexts
2.45	Celiane Camargo-Borges, Arlene Katz, Sheila McNamee: Hearing multi-voiced dialogues in healthcare: Towards transformative engagement	1 Anneke Sools: Narratives-in-interaction: How healthy subject positions are interactionally accomplished in a peer-peer interview	1 Antonia Lyons: Alcohol, gender and identity: Using photos to explore young adults' binge drinking behaviour	1 Jane M. Ussher & Mirjana Sandoval: Gender differences in the construction and experience of cancer care: The consequences of the gendered positioning of carers
3.15		2 Gemma Carey, Annette Braunack-Mayer: Balancing rights and commitments: Ethical considerations and reciprocal relationships in ethnographic research	2 Lynda Measor: Condoms: A culture of resistance	2 Emilee Gilbert: Negotiating the gender and sexual dynamics of the caring relationship: An examination of the subjective experiences of sexuality for cancer carers
3.45		3 Lauren Mizock, Yvonne Wells, Debra Harkins: Negotiating barriers: Narrating the challenges of multicultural research	3 Adam Bourne: Acceptance and control of sexual identity: Making sense of sexual behaviour in a post-feminist era	3 Georgia Ovenden: "I feel like a bit of a failure for not being able to give him what he needs": Child sexual abuse survivors' accounts of interpersonal relationships with men
4.15		4 Ian Hodges: Accounting for HIV: An exploratory Q-methodological study of HIV and risk	4 David Clarke , R. Ingham, L. Yardley: A Foucauldian discourse analysis of alcohol education and alcohol use amongst young people aged 16 and under	4 Janette Perz , Jane M. Ussher: Pre-menstrual syndrome as gendered distress: Breaking self-silencing
4.45		5 Laurie L. Charles: Struggling for a health and an education: Autoethnography as a form of social justice inquiry into the lives of girls in a West African village	5 Alison Rolfe: Women, heavy drinking and discourses of femininity	5 Jane Ussher , Julie Mooney-Somers: PMS in lesbian relationships: The construction and negotiation of premenstrual distress in a relational context
5.15		6 Julie Hepworth: Key issues in the prevention of trafficking humans: A public health psychology approach	6 Michelle Ronayne , Debra Harkins: Empowerment at work: An exploration of the perceptions of those working with domestic violence victims	6 Megan Brock: The nun's negotiation of self as woman within the patriarchal context of the Catholic church: An Australian / New Zealand study
5.45-6.45	Roundtable 5 and Discussion: The Future of Critical Health Psychology and the ISCHP (Little Theatre) Chair: Kerry Chamberlain, Massey University, New Zealand
7.30	Clam Bake

Saturday July 21st 2007 (Morning)

Time	Room A	Room B	Room C	Little Theatre
	Workshop 4	Session 16: Gendered Bodies, Identity and Change	Session 17: Journeys of Recovery	Session 18: Cultural Legacy and Health
8.30	Ian Lubek et al, Critically confronting HIV/AIDS and alcohol risks in Cambodia (2006-2007): Mapping community health challenges, techniques and resources	1 Janet M. Stoppard , Deborah K. van den Hoonaard: "I'm in good health but I have a lot of arthritis": Older women talk about their health	1 Laura S. Lorenz: Using narrative analysis methods to gain insight into living with brain injury	1 Sarah Kooienga: Mexican American families experience of Type 2 diabetes: A narrative inquiry
9.00		2 Marcianna Nosek : The experience of distress during the menopause transition	2 Leeat Granek: "You're a whole lot of person": Understanding the journey through anorexia to recovery: A qualitative study	2 Ashraf Kagee , Marieanna le Roux, Judy Dick: Treatment adherence among primary care patients in a historically disadvantaged community in South Africa: A qualitative study
9.30		3 Jack Noone and Christine Stephens : Men talking health: Negotiating masculine identities in a situated context	3 David J. Wilde , Craig D. Murray: A phenomenological analysis of the near-death experience	3 Juan Chen , Kerry Chamberlain: Cultural understandings of food, health, and medicine among Chinese immigrants
10.00		4 Irmgard Tischner , Helen Malson, Nicky Rumsey, Emma Halliwell: Deconstructing visible/invisible 'large bodies'	4 Liora Navon , Liora Slomiansky: The conceptualization of classificatory transgressions characterizing brain death, coma, and the return to consciousness	4 Azizi Seixas : Coming to America: A qualitative study on the health of international students in post 9-11 America
10.30		5 Dan Bar-On, Michal Schoenberg-Taz : Height, masculinity and social power: The binding point between physics and social construction	5 Heather Adams : Influence of disability stereotypes on women's perceptions of their chronic illness experiences	5 Amy Szarkowski, Yukinori Komine: Burmese refugee children in Thailand: A look at health and politics
11.00	Coffee and tea
11.30	Keynote 4: Michael Murray: Health and the arts (Little Theatre) Chair: Christine Stephens, Massey University, New Zealand
12.30	Closing
12.45	Lunch
2.00	Community visit: Lowell Community Health Center: Cambodian Community Health 2010 Project and to the Center for Family, Work and Community, University of Massachusetts, Lowell Massachusetts.			